

2012 National Night Out Registrations Underway

Durham Police Department's (DPD) registration for 2012 National Night Out, America's Night Out Against Crime, is underway. The official observance date is Tuesday, August 7, 2012 (always the first Tuesday in August - as set by the National Association of Town Watch).

Neighborhood organizers can register their events online at www.durhampolice.com. Simply click on the 2012 NNO logo on the DPD home page. To get on DPD's list of participating neighborhoods, click the link "DPD National Night Out registration" and provide event details. Registration forms are also available at police substations and headquarters. The registration deadline is July 9, 2012 to be included in DPD's promotions and schedule of police visits.

For information on DPD's 2012 NNO observance, contact Kimberle Walker, Senior Public Affairs Specialist, at 560-4322 extension 29194.
